

February 22, 2005

Dear Neighbors:

It's that time of the year when we ask others in the community to step forward and become a participant on the board of the Century Farms Neighborhood Association.

The second week in April is when terms are over for two of the five board members. On April 12, 2005, after spring break and national and local elections, there will be three meetings conducted: The 2005 Annual Meeting of the Members of CFNA, the 2005 Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of CFNA and a Regular Meeting of the Board of Directors. At the 2005 Annual Meeting of the Members, the elections will take place.

The terms are overlapping as such, in even years, (2004, 2006, 2008...) two board members stay while three board members need to be elected or re-elected and in odd years, (2005, 2007, 2009...) three board members stay while two board members need to be elected or re-elected. Such is that time when board members need to be elected/re-elected for the new terms. The board members whose terms are due to expire are Ian Carrus and Mitch Friedman.

Although Ian and Mitch have decided to run again and continue their participation on the board, we must still ask if there are others who would like the opportunity to run for a board member position.

If you have ever considered joining the board now is your time, please complete the enclosed CFNA Board Election Form. Upon completion of the form, you may either mail it or drop it off at :

For a clear understanding of board member description, please access the Explanation of Committees. This also details the committees that are available for your participation.

If you choose to be a committee chairperson, you will be the organizer of the group and will be responsible for attending to the main functions of the committee as well as encouraging neighborhood participation. Please contact the current board at cfna-board@yahoogleroups.com for further information.
